

Caroline Bartol Preserve at Saguaro Hill

38443 N. Schoolhouse Rd., Cave Creek, Arizona

Located right in the center of Cave Creek, Saguaro Hill not only serves as the quintessential backdrop for a thriving Western town and great tourist destination, it also offers one of the best views in town. The six-acre, Caroline Bartol Preserve is peppered with towering saguaros in every direction. Nestled right next to Desert Foothills Library, it's the perfect place to take a stroll, relax with a good book, experience one of Arizona's amazing sunsets or simply enjoy nature.

Parking: at Desert Foothills Library

Fees: none

Trail type: loop trail

Distance: 0.38 miles (outer loop)

Use: moderate

Pet friendly: yes, on leash*

Other: This interpretive loop trail is on the slope of Saguaro Hill. It highlights the life cycle of the saguaro, and offers shaded benches for relaxing. There are shorter route options available. The preserve is open to the public daily.

moderate

Loose dirt with occasional unevenness and slight to moderate elevation change.

info@dflt.org 480.488.6131
www.dflt.org

*please pick-up after pets